

Dear

For Christmas, I'd like to give you the city of Madrid...

It's a map of all locations discovered by my friend Leah, a Madrid explorer that sees things a bit differently. Her blog is called Madrid No Frills and, for three years, she's been mapping everything she's found on her walks around this city. Discover...

- 212 beautiful no-frills bars
- 92 no-frills restaurants
- 66 living museums that you won't quite believe exist
- 28 haunted buildings with stories you've never heard before
- 21 rebel community spaces, because Madrid is just that kind of city
- 16 unmapped Spanish Civil War bunkers
- 14 spectacular viewpoints to admire the best of Madrid
- 11 radical vegan restaurants with politically charged menus
- and a few more surprises...

Almost 500 hidden gems lie inside this map waiting to be discovered by you because, like me, you like to dig deeper than most others in getting to know the amazing city of Madrid. Simply open your phone camera, scan the QR code to the right and...

Have a very merry no-frills Christmas,

(and your new explorer companion, Leah)
